

Science Crosswords

DOWN

1. A mountain that erupts with lava and ash.
3. A gas in the air that humans and animals need to breathe.
5. The process plants use to make food from sunlight.
7. The ability to do work, like heat, light, or motion.
9. A device used to observe distant stars and planets.
10. A large object that orbits a star, like Earth.
12. An object that attracts iron and some other metals.

ACROSS

2. The smallest unit of matter.
4. The process of a liquid turning into a gas.
6. The basic unit of life in living organisms.
8. A tool used to see tiny objects that cannot be seen with the naked eye.
11. A form of energy used to power devices and machines.
13. A test to learn or discover something new.
14. A substance used in or produced by a reaction.
15. The force that pulls objects toward the Earth.
16. A community of living things and their environment.

Science Crosswords

DOWN

1. A mountain that erupts with lava and ash.
3. A gas in the air that humans and animals need to breathe.
5. The process plants use to make food from sunlight.
7. The ability to do work, like heat, light, or motion.
9. A device used to observe distant stars and planets.
10. A large object that orbits a star, like Earth.
12. An object that attracts iron and some other metals.

ACROSS

2. The smallest unit of matter.
4. The process of a liquid turning into a gas.
6. The basic unit of life in living organisms.
8. A tool used to see tiny objects that cannot be seen with the naked eye.
11. A form of energy used to power devices and machines.
13. A test to learn or discover something new.
14. A substance used in or produced by a reaction.
15. The force that pulls objects toward the Earth.
16. A community of living things and their environment.